

A.C.T.S. PRAYERS FOR YOUR CHILDREN

REJOICE ALWAYS! PRAY CONSTANTLY. GIVE THANKS IN EVERYTHING, FOR THIS IS GOD'S WILL FOR YOU IN CHRIST JESUS. 1 THESSALONIANS 5:16-18

ADORATION

Praise God for creating your children. Take time to admire features and qualities about your kids that God formed in them.

CONFESSION

Consider the day or the week and think about what areas you might have sinned against God, your husband or your children. Tell them to God. Apologize to Him. Then praise Him and thank Him for covering you with His amazing grace.

THANKSGIVING

Thank God for giving you this child. This is an opportunity to thank God for obstacles you/your child have overcome, trials you've gotten through, ways you/your child have grown. You could thank God for the opportunity to teach your child about Him. You could thank Him for allowing us to have the Bible, the Church, the Holy Spirit to guide us through the mayhem of motherhood.

SUPPLICATION

This is where you spend time asking God for things for your family. Supplication is eager, humble requests. You could ask for His protection, His help, and His wisdom. I usually end my prayers with asking God for guidance as Tyler and I raise our boys, that we can teach them about God and that one day they'll be able to choose to follow Him.
